

Lecturer Opportunities @ City College Plymouth Vacancy Information

Business – Variable Hours Lecturer (International: English for Academic Purposes)

The Business team is looking for an experienced English specialist to teach English for Academic Purposes and IELTS to our international students. This role will include delivering high quality, engaging lessons to a wide range of international students. You will be working as part of an established and enthusiastic team to support our students as they progress towards Higher Education.

Business – Variable Hours Lecturer (International: maths & finance)

The Business team is looking for an experienced maths specialist to teach higher level maths and finance to our international students. This role will include delivering high quality, engaging lessons to a wide range of international students. You will be working as part of an established and enthusiastic team to support our students as they progress towards Higher Education.

Business - Bank Lecturer

The Business team is looking for bank lecturers to deliver across a range of courses. If you have experience in HR, accounting, management or other areas of business and are interested in teaching, this role will give you the chance to develop your teaching skills as part of a friendly and dynamic team.

English – Variable Hours Lecturer

The English Academy is looking for an enthusiastic and committed English specialist to join its very successful team of teachers. This flexible post includes teaching full-time and part-time students to prepare them for functional skills and GCSE exams. The role will include some evening teaching. If you want to join a well-established, successful team and teach in a dynamic and exciting environment, then we would welcome your application.

English – Bank Lecturer

The English team is looking for a bank lecturer who is able to cover lessons and teach classes on a flexible basis. The role will give you the opportunity to teach across Functional Skills and GCSE English provision.

ESOL – Variable Hours Lecturer

The ESOL team is looking for a flexible and supportive ESOL specialist to join the small and friendly team of ESOL teachers. This variable hours post includes teaching full-time and part-time students. You will be supporting students to develop their English skills via reading, writing and speaking and listening. Our students come from a diverse range of backgrounds and offer a committed, enthusiastic teacher the chance to have a positive impact and enjoy a rewarding role within our college community.

ESOL – Bank Lecturer

The ESOL team is looking for a bank lecturer who is able to cover lessons and take classes on a flexible basis. This role will give you the chance to work with a diverse range of students and be part of a well-established team. Hours and days will vary.

Physics – Variable Hours Lecturer

Applicants need to hold or be working towards a suitable teaching qualification, and should have knowledge and experience to support the delivery of International programme units delivering predominantly in the field of Physical Science - there may also be opportunity to deliver other aspects of science.

Science – Variable Hours Lecturer

Applicants need to hold or be working towards a suitable teaching qualification, and should have knowledge and experience to support the delivery of Study Programme and International programme units delivering across a range of scientific fields.

Computing – Variable Hours Lecturer

Applicants need to hold or be working towards a suitable teaching qualification, and should have knowledge and experience to support the delivery of Study Programme units delivering across a range of fields within Computing Science. Skills and experience in using software such as Unity and Construct would be desirable as well as up-to-date knowledge of software, application or games development (Python, C#, C++) that will help to drive continuous curriculum development. Close industry links are also highly desired.

Skills Development - Lecturer

Working in the College's highly successful Skills Development department, you will assist the personal development, basic skills and vocational training of young people with significant learning difficulties or disabilities, and also those who are not yet ready to enter Apprenticeships or employment.

Care - Lecturer

If you have any of the following skills, we would be delighted to receive your application, especially if you have experience of both HE and FE teaching:

- Experience of delivering HE modules related to Health or Childhood Education
- Experience of delivering FE qualifications in both health and Early Years
- Health sector experience
- Curriculum and industry collaboration
- Level 4 Teaching Qualification
- Innovative teaching styles